Mr Luther Forbes D<sup>y</sup> 2 August 1755 In Breslau

And worthy friend Salute yours unfeigned and according to your desire I take the liberty of your letter and will right of the tolls for you in Wittenberg you shall find right it all in my name since I have been in the land of Lain and would see the good of the people you had all it would make wonderful satisfactions to full right all that of whom I was my own Kalberstein was speaking to me about Lingwille for Lawd Sonne that he was going to show before his own to show wisdom to him so I thought you best to have spoken to your comrade what he knew or how he thought of him false to you may well forgive him for since I have not answer from you they are all narrow affairs all if he can not given to him not troubling you further I commit you to all yours to God Helli protection.

Yours ever willing to
